

LOOKING FOR A WAY TO HELP HURRICANE VICTIMS?

Join in hurricane relief donation efforts started by fellow CALS student Amonté Martin, who began a donation drive (#ChompChomp4Houston) for Hurricane Harvey victims and subsequently Hurricane Irma.

CALS encourages students to contribute to these efforts in any of the following ways:

Non-perishable + Hygiene Items Donation

Items include: food, bottled water, batteries, juice, diapers, wipes, shoes, gently-used clothing, toiletries, personal hygiene products, etc.

T-shirts for Texas

Donate new club t-shirts for CALS' adopted high school FFA class in Texas who experienced flooding.

Spare Change Donation

The CALS front office will have a spare change jar available to those who wish to make any monetary donations to hurricane relief efforts.

Donations will be collected through October 31, 2017 at 2020 McCarty Hall D.

DONATION DROP-OFF LOCATIONS

- Newins-Ziegler Hall Room 350
- Office of Graduate Diversity Initiatives in Grinter Hall Room 123
- Target Copy off of University Avenue (Open 24 Hours)
- CISE Computer Lab Room 301
- Larsen Hall Room 233

A portion of these donations will be available to our Gator community in the Alan & Cathy Hitchcock Field & Fork Pantry. Monetary donations will go toward purchasing clothes, toiletries, non-perishable food items, and shipping costs. Checks can be made payable to UF Collegiate Farm Bureau.
