RE: Dr. James Davidson Graduate Travel Scholarship

The Dr. James Davidson Graduate Travel Scholarship is available to graduate students (M.S. or Ph.D.) in the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, School of Forest Resources and Conservation, and the School of Natural Resources and Environment. The purpose of this scholarship is to provide funding to help defray travel expenses for graduate students presenting a paper or poster at a domestic or international professional meeting or conference. Graduate students presenting a paper or poster at a statewide or regional meeting/conference are not eligible to apply for the Davidson Travel Scholarship.

Students must make a presentation (oral or poster) on their original research at a domestic or international meeting or conference and must have the support of their major advisor and unit administrator to attend

Scholarships will be awarded in the amount of $300 for meetings or conferences held within the United States, and $650 for meetings or conferences held outside of the United States. If the student has direct deposit, the award will be deposited into their checking or savings account. If the student does not have direct deposit, a check will be mailed directly to the student from Student Financial Affairs, Financial Aid Office.

Students are asked to submit the following to their department/school one week prior to the college deadline:

1. Application form [attached].
2. Vitae Including Graduate GPA, GRE Score, and Approximate Graduation Date.
 - a. Highly Recommended to Include Presentations & Publications in Vitae.
